

Tax Return Transcript Request

Some students who complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) will be selected for a process called verification. Many of these students need to verify their own income and tax information for a specific tax year. In addition, income and tax information for the student's spouse (if the student is married) or for the student's parents (if the student is considered "dependent") may be required. The college cannot complete verification and disburse aid until all required information is received and reviewed.
