New England Regional Student Program

MCC is a member of the New England Regional Student Program. This program provides an opportunity for students to earn an undergraduate degree in certain programs not offered at a college near their home or in their home state. Under this program, an out-of-state student who is accepted into this program will be charged the regular resident tuition plus a 50 percent surcharge. Go to the Admissions office for more information about this program or online at www.nebhe.org/programs-overview/rsp-tuition-break/overview.
