

View the Financial Aid Award, Check Pending Requirements and Access the Book Credit

After submitting your FAFSA application, you will be able to track your financial aid status and award information electronically using myCommNet at <http://my.commmnet.edu>. If prompted to select the college, select MCC. If prompted to select the year, choose the appropriate academic year and "Submit" (i.e. for Fall 2018 and Spring 2019, the academic year is 2018/2019). The first time you log in you will be prompted to update/confirm your contact information. Awards will show as accepted, no further action is needed.

BOOK CREDIT

Students who have financial aid left over after the costs for tuition and fees are covered will be able to use this credit at the campus bookstore and bookstore website. The book credit cannot be used at a different website or through another bookstore.

To use the book credit, visit the bookstore with a copy of your schedule and photo ID during the designated book credit dates and indicate that you will be using your book credit eligibility to cover the cost of books.

Note: Not all students are eligible for the book credit. If you have a bill after financial aid has been applied to your charges, you will not be eligible for the book credit. The book credit can only be used through the announced deadline each semester. After the deadline passes, you will need to purchase your books out-of-pocket. For deadline information, please visit the campus bookstore.
