Special instructions to the student:

The student must:

- Be enrolled in an eligible degree or certificate program; must have been approved for financial aid and be making satisfactory academic progress at your Home School during the semester you are applying for this agreement.
- Take only a course(s) at the Host School that is (are) required for the completion of your certificate or degree program at your Home School. Courses must be approved by your Home School Advisor.
- Submit a grade transcript from the Host School to your Home School Registrar's Office upon completion.
- You are responsible for purchasing any books associated with courses covered by this agreement. Books are not covered by financial aid under this agreement.
- Be aware that financial aid is awarded and disbursed by your Home School only.
- Please be advised that the Host School may require payment of tuition and/or fees from you at the time of registration regardless of your financial aid status. If this request is submitted late, you must pay the Host School.
- The Home School will make every effort to transfer the funds directly to the Host School. However, if the Host School does not bill, or bills late, the Home School will disburse the award directly to the student, and the student will be responsible for paying the Host School directly. If the eventual aid award is insufficient to cover all costs, the student will be responsible for all remaining expenses due to the Home and/or Host School.

Step 2: To be completed by the Home School Financial Aid Office

Statement of Purpose

The Consortium Agreement will allow the Home School to disburse financial aid based on the student's combined enrollment at both institutions. The Home School is responsible for determining financial aid eligibility, awards, disbursing aid, returns, monitoring Satisfactory Academic Progress and reporting requirements for institutional, state, and federal aid. The Home School will seek to verify enrollment at the Host School during the period of enrollment, and will also seek final grades for the student at the conclusion of the period of enrollment.

The Home School will process financial aid according to the method below:

If the student is attending another Connecticut Community College:
 After Home School charges are paid, the Home School will transfer remaining financial aid funds to the Host School for the direct charges itemized by the Host School. The student shall be responsible for paying any difference in tuition and fee charges. The student is responsible for the purchase of their books at the Host School.

All other institutions:
 After Home School charges are paid, the Home School will disburse any excess aid to the student. The student is responsible for using any financial aid refunds to pay the charges to the Host Institution.
