RAYMOND F. DAMATO LIBRARY
USER MANUAL

GENERAL INTRODUCTION

The Manchester Community College Library, a state-of-the-art facility, occupies nearly 35,000 square feet in the Learning Resource Center Building. Seating is available for 300 students. It is staffed by four full-time professional librarians including the Director of the Library and Educational Technology, one part-time professional librarian, and three full-time library staff. The library is open 60 hours a week over six days.

Library Resources

- The book collection currently consists of approximately 53,000 items, with a net collection goal of 60,000 volumes.
- The periodical collection contains approximately 350 titles. Thousands of reputable articles from magazines, journals and newspapers can be accessed via the MCC library home page through subscription databases.
- Electronic resources via online scholarly databases, as well as e-book collections, represent a rapidly expanding portion of the collection.
- The library has built a strong audiovisual collection consisting of DVDs, CDs, and books on CD.
- Approximately fifty percent of the library budget for resources may be used by faculty to suggest purchase of materials, which support their academic programs.
- An online catalog gives easy access to the collection, both on-site and remotely.
- The library is merged with the Educational Technology and Distance Learning Department. This merger has enabled the library to provide additional technology support services for Blackboard Learn and software applications as well as increase accessibility to library collections and services through the Blackboard Learning Management System.

The College is committed to resource sharing within and beyond its community. Manchester Community College Library belongs to OCLC, a national online network; OCLC provides interlibrary loans of books and periodical articles from over 10,000 member libraries. Students and faculty may initiate requests for materials owned by other libraries through this service. The Manchester Community College Library also offers users wireless services and maintains a presence on Facebook. Throughout the academic year, the library sponsors book discussions and a book sale.

Instruction in Library Research

The library staff provides students with instruction on the use of the library for research and actively encourages faculty to schedule classes in the library for this instruction. Students can also make individual appointments for research help with the reference librarians, and can submit reference questions and chat with a librarian 24/7 using the "Ask a Librarian" link from the library's home page. Librarians are also able to help students in online and hybrid courses by providing research assistance through Blackboard Learn. If you are interested in having an embedded librarian in your online course please contact Deborah Herman, Director of the Library and Educational Technology, at 512-2872 or Paula Pini, Associate Director of the Library, at 512-2877.

MISSION STATEMENT

The MCC Library and Educational Technology Department supports the college mission by fostering the critical thinking skills and intellectual curiosity essential for lifelong learning while ensuring equitable access to the tools necessary to gain and share knowledge. We provide a platform for creativity and the exploration of ideas outside the formal classroom, and promote innovation and the effective use of educational technology to enhance teaching and learning.

LIBRARY CONDUCT POLICY

The library does not permit behavior that is incompatible with the use of the library. In order to maintain an atmosphere in the library that is conducive to quiet study and other academic pursuits, patrons need to refrain from unacceptable behavior. - Library staff can inspect any of your property when you come in or leave.
- You must wear clothing and shoes in the library and your personal hygiene must not be so offensive that it disturbs others. We ask that all patron show respect for the comfort of others by observing acceptable standards for personal cleanliness and dress.

- Library staff and campus police can ask visitors to show their library cards or other ID at any time.
- Large groups that want to visit the library must make prior arrangements before they visit.
- Photography and recording are not allowed on library premises without prior permission.

COMPUTER RESOURCES POLICY

The library provides access to computer equipment, software, electronic databases and the Internet for informational and educational use for students, faculty, staff and community users. Collectively these elements make up "Computer Resources." All users of the library's computer resources are expected to use the library's computer resources correctly and for legal purposes only. Computer resources may not be used for the following purposes:

- Violation of any applicable federal, state, or local laws, ordinances, rules and regulations.
- Engaging in any activity that is harassing or defamatory.
- Destruction or damage to hardware, software, or data belonging to the library.
- Disruption or unauthorized network access to any computing, information or communications devices or resources.
- Gaining or attempting to gain unauthorized access to any computing, information or communications devices or resources.
- Disruption or unauthorized monitoring of electronic communications.
- Unauthorized copying of copyright or other protected material.

- Damaging computers, computer systems or computer networks; vandalizing, debilitating or disabling computers, systems or networks through the intentional misuse or overuse of electronic distribution or the spreading of computer "viruses" through the inappropriate use of files or external drives.

Computer resources may not be used in any other matters in which the library, in its sole discretion and subject to constitutional limitations, and in consideration of the best interests of the public, determines to be an unacceptable purpose.

Computer Use by Guests/Community Members

Community members may use 6 designated guest computers. There are two computers located near the print release stations which are designated specifically for use by guest borrowers/community members. While MCC guests may use the 4 remaining computers, current MCC students, faculty and staff always have priority use. Use of guest computers is limited to a maximum of two hours per day.

DISCLAIMERS:

Compliance

The library reserves the right to take appropriate action to insure compliance with this policy. Violations may result in the loss of access to the library. Unlawful activities will be dealt with in an appropriate manner.

Choosing and Evaluating Sources

Library patrons use the Internet at their own risk. The library does not limit access to materials or attempt to protect users from materials some users may find offensive. In choosing sources to link to its home page the library does not monitor or control information accessible through the Internet and is not responsible for its content, for changes in content of the sources to which the library home page links, or the content of sources accessed through secondary links.

Privacy Issues

Users should be aware that the Internet is not a secure medium and that third parties may be able to obtain information regarding users' activities.

INTERNET ACCESS:

The library provides Internet access to all MCC and students, faculty and staff, to all GPA students, faculty and staff, and to the community. The Internet contains a variety of material and opinions from varied points of view. In offering Internet access, the library staff cannot control access points, which often change rapidly and even unpredictably. Users are hereby notified that they are responsible for the access points they reach. Parents of minor children must assume responsibility for their children's use of or exposure to the Internet through the library's connection. Because the library uses no filtering software to block or restrict access to Internet sites, parents or legal guardians should guide their children in the use of the Internet and inform them about material they should not use.

CHILDREN IN THE LIBRARY

A parent or guardian must supervise children 12 years of age and under at all times as found in the Connecticut State Statues, Sec. 53-21a. *Leaving child unsupervised in place of public accommodation or motor vehicle.

This is an academic library and children must be quiet, controlled and not disruptive to patrons using the library.

- Children are not allowed to use the library computers or A-V equipment without parental assistance.
- Children under 15 years of age may not obtain a library card unless they are currently enrolled in an MCC program.
- The library does not censor library materials. Therefore, it is the parents' responsibility to determine whether the material their child is reading, viewing or listening to is appropriate for their child.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF PATRON RECORDS

Information collected by any unit of the MCC Library, relating to the use of collections and/or services by an individual library patron, is confidential.

Personal information is compiled in library records and files for the following purposes:

- To maintain information as to the location/availability of materials.
- To compile general use statistics in regard to collections and/or services (statistics are not compiled on individual users).
- To enable the library to conduct its normal business with patrons, e.g. mailing notices, resolving problems, collecting fines, etc.

Access to an individual's files is available to:

- The patron him/herself.
- Library staff in the course of their assigned duties.

Access to individual files by any other party, including library staff who have "no need to know," other College staff, other state or federal employees, or other library patrons is prohibited. Library staff is not authorized to provide any information concerning an individual's use of collections or services to anyone other than the patron or to other library staff who need such information in the performance of their assigned duties. The MCC Library will not release information on the use of specific Internet resources by members of the public except as required by law or as necessary for the proper operation of the library.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

When a student reaches the age of 18 or begins attending a post-secondary institution, regardless of age, FERPA rights transfer from the parent to the student. FERPA protects a student's privacy with regards to any personal information contained in the library circulation database. This includes but is not limited to any overdue fines or replacement and processing fees on lost or damaged items. If a student wishes to have another individual, such as a parent, make restitution for fines or fees, a consent form must be completed and on file with the library. If the consent form does not exist, the library staff may not discuss the student record with the parent.

FOOD & DRINK POLICY

- Library users may bring small, odorless food items and drink into the library.
- Food and open drinks are NOT permitted at computer workstations or in the group study rooms.
- Patrons are to clean the desk and tabletop after they have eaten, and to throw out all wrappers, empty cups or bottles, etc.
- Non-alcoholic beverages are allowed but must be in closed, spill-proof travel mugs or plastic bottles with secure lids.
- Food and drink privileges may be restricted or withdrawn by library staff if abused.

ACQUISITIONS POLICY

The following guidelines are used to select and acquire materials for the MCC Library:

- The Manchester Community College Library adheres to the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights in making collection development decisions.

- Acquired materials should be related to the academic needs of Manchester Community College. These include:
  - General reference materials appropriate to a college library.
  - Print and electronic materials related to programs of study offered by the college.
  - Serials which support curriculum needs and the reading interests of MCC students, faculty and staff.
  - Materials for individual enrichment and enjoyment, budget permitting.

- Materials for GPA are purchased through funding designated strictly for that purpose.

- In choosing material, the MCC Library seeks the active participation of college faculty. The Library Liaison Program links a librarian with an academic department to work collaboratively on subject specific collection development and as a way to inform academic departments of updates from the library.

- Materials of varying degrees of reading comprehension are purchased to meet the needs of students with differing levels of ability.

- Budget considerations affect library acquisitions. Some factors that limit purchases include the following:
    - Current editions of textbooks used in classes are ordinarily not added to the circulating collection.
    - A limited number of titles in fiction and popular non-fiction are purchased each year, selected on a qualitative basis.

MATERIALS WEEDING POLICY

The MCC Library retains only one copy of each title/edition, unless a specific need is known, such as a high demand.

The MCC librarians are assigned to develop and maintain specific areas of the library's collection. Materials that are selected to be withdrawn from the collection must meet at least one of the following criteria:

- The material is outdated or obsolete
- New editions have been purchased for the collection
- The item is worn or damaged

Books may be transferred to the circulating collection from reference, rather than being discarded, if:

- An updated edition has been added to the reference collection
- Material is better suited for patron use in the circulating collection

Material that has been selected to be withdrawn from the collection is stamped "Withdrawn" and put on a book truck labeled "Free Books" in the front entry area of the library. There is no regular or predetermined time for material to be withdrawn; weeding is a regular part of maintaining library collections.

MISSING ITEMS POLICY

Items that are not found on the shelves, but are listed in the library's database as "Not Checked Out," are noted. When a library patron reports an item is missing the library staff member will verify that the item is missing and not just misshelved. The item status will then be updated to missing which will show on the record in the online catalog. After six months, the shelves will be rechecked. If item is still not located, the bibliographic record is removed from the Library's database or the item is replaced.

GIFT / DONATION POLICY

The MCC Library accepts book donations. We do not accept magazine donations. It is understood that donated material will be reviewed and its relevance to the library collection will be assessed. Material not added to the library collection will be put in the annual library book sale. Proceeds from this sale go to the MCC Library Foundation.

COLLEGE ARCHIVES POLICY

The Manchester Community College Archives is open to students, faculty and staff of the College, and outside researchers with a stated and approved research project. Archives materials are non-circulating. Records may not be removed from the Archives but can be examined on site.

If you plan to use a large amount of materials, we appreciate advance notice to prepare for your visit.

- All researchers will be asked to complete a Research Registration Form and present a valid form of photo identification, e.g., driver's license, passport, student ID, or faculty ID.
- Coats, hats, handbags, briefcases, or other large cases or bags, and all other personal property not essential to research must be placed in a designated area away from the reading area.
- No food or beverages are allowed in the Archives or the designated reading area.
- Notes must be taken with pencils. The use of pens and ink of any kind is prohibited. Portable computers may be used.
- Users may not write on, mark, or in any other way alter Archival materials.
- Users may only examine one box or item at a time.
- Please maintain the exact order and arrangement of documents in a folder. If you discover a filing error, call it to the attention of a staff member. Please do not rearrange items yourself. Notify staff when photocopies are required.
- Do not remove items from folders.
- Please handle items with care. Do not fold, write on, or otherwise damage the papers.

Copies of Archival Material
- Photocopying, scanning and photo reproduction are available for a fee. Requests for photocopies or photo reproductions must be submitted on the Reproduction Order Form.
- Personal reproduction tools, including personal cameras, smart phones, or other mobile devices must be approved by staff.

- Staff reserves the right to prohibit the copying of materials that are deemed too fragile for the process or for any other reason including, but not limited to, size of material, donor restrictions, privacy matters, known copyright restrictions, etc.
- Users assume responsibility for adherence to copyright laws, libel or literary property rights applicable to material use. (The copyright law of the United States, Title 17 U.S. Code, applies to materials in the collections). The patron agrees further to indemnify Manchester Community College against any damages incurred through misuse of material protected by federal copyright law.
- Materials may not be published, in full or in part, without the written permission of the Library Director or the Dean of Academic Affairs.

LIBRARY DISPLAY CASE POLICY

The MCC library welcomes the expression of ideas and opinions in support of educating our diverse campus communities.

- Library display cases are reserved on a first come/first serve basis and are free of charge.
- The use of our 4 display cases is limited to MCC faculty, staff, and students. This service will not be made available to off-campus groups or individuals.
- There is a one month maximum for displaying materials; additional time is permissible if no other reservations have been made. A maximum of two display cases at a time may be reserved.
- Set up and removal of the displays will be the responsibility of the group(s) or individual requesting the space. Prompt take down of displays upon expiration of reservation time is expected. Library staff may remove materials upon expiration of the approved scheduled time.
- Users are responsible for leaving the case(s) in the same clean condition it was reserved to them, including the removal of all staples and tape. Windex and rags will be made available by library staff if needed. Any damages to the display cases, e.g. broken shelving or glass, will be the responsibility of the user.
- Permission to use the display cases does not constitute the library's endorsement of beliefs represented in the display or responsibility for representing all points of view.
- Displays that are defamatory or discriminatory toward others, and materials depicting graphic violence will not be permitted.

USING THE LIBRARY
LIBRARY PROCEDURES & PRIVILEGES

LIBRARY CARDS – ELIGIBILITY

Library cards are available to MCC and Great Path Academy students, faculty and staff. Library cards are available to guests provided they are Connecticut residents aged 15

Library users are responsible for all materials charged out on their library cards. They agree to comply with all MCC Library rules and regulations, including the obligation to return materials promptly and/or pay any fees or damages charged to them for loss, theft or injury to any materials. Failure to meet this obligation will result in a hold (bill for replacement) being placed on a student's or faculty or staff member's Banner account, and in the suspension of borrowing privileges.

Users who allow others to borrow materials on their library cards assume responsibility for those materials, regardless of who actually uses the materials.   All overdue/lost/damaged charges will be the responsibility of the card holder who will be billed accordingly.

LIBRARY CARDS FOR MCC STUDENTS

LOST / STOLEN LIBRARY CARDS

A patron who has lost their library card or who has had their library card stolen must report it immediately to the library. Failure to immediately report a library card as lost or stolen means that any material charged out on that library card is the responsibility of the patron to whom the card belongs, regardless of whether the patron is in possession of their library card or not.

BORROWING & RETURNING LIBRARY MATERIALS

Borrowing Library Materials

A borrower must provide his or her student Banner number and name or present his or her library card or student ID card at the circulation desk at the time of checkout. A patron who does not have his or her library card and/or cannot provide a Banner number at the time of check-out will be asked to provide identification with name and current address so that library staff may look them up in the database. Performing a patron search in the database is done as a courtesy and library staff reserves the right to refuse to check out materials to a patron who is unable to provide his or her Banner number or who do not have his or her library card. Staff will instead offer to hold the material for two days so that the patron may come back with the library card.

Items limited to in-house use, such as reference books, newspapers, magazines, and others so designated, do not circulate and may not be checked out for any reason.

MCC and GPA students, faculty and staff must provide a photo ID in addition to their Banner number when borrowing the following items:

- iPads
- Video Cameras (only available to students enrolled in certain classes)
- Photography Cameras (only available to students enrolled in certain classes)
- Laptops

Continuing education students and guests are excluded from borrowing these materials. Other lending restrictions may apply to specific items.

Library users will not be allowed to check out materials if they:

- Owe $5.00 or more in unpaid fines or charges
- Have more than two overdue library items.
- Have one or more lost items charges to their library card.
- Have an expired library card and have failed to provide necessary information in order to renew it.

Returning Library Materials

When returning library materials, patrons should bring them to the circulation desk and place them in the return slot. Patrons should NEVER leave items they are returning on top of the circulation desk. The circulation desk is a busy place and anyone walking by could take those items and walk off with them. Until library staff checks items back into the database, all items charged out to patrons are the patrons' responsibility. Library staff is not responsible for materials that patrons leave unprotected on top of the circulation desk.

Library staff looks over all material returned to the library. Highlighted pages, underlining, writing or scribbling on the pages, water damage, juice stains, musty odors, mold, torn pages, strong cigar or cigarette smoke odors, crumbs and food stains are all considered damage to printed materials. Damage to DVDs and CDs include cracks and scratches to the discs and water damage to the paper inserts in the plastic covers. Any printed materials or media materials returned in these conditions will not be accepted by staff as being returned in the condition they were loaned and the borrowing patron will be billed to replace and/or reprocess the item(s).

During the hours that the library is closed but the building is still open, patrons may return library materials in the book depository slot on the wall outside of the library doors.

RENEWING LIBRARY MATERIALS

Library material may be renewed on or before the due date. Material may be renewed ONE TIME ONLY.
- Books and Books on CD are given one 2-week renewal from the date they are renewed.
- DVDs and CDs are given one 1-week renewal from the date they are renewed.

 Please note that items cannot be renewed if:

- The item is overdue

- The item is on reserve
- The item is a laptop
- A patron has fines of $5.00 or more
- A patron has 2 or more overdue items

To renew online, a patron may go to the library's website and follow these steps:

www.mcc.commnet.edu/library

- In the section "How Do I?" click on "View Library Account/Renew Items."
- Login using either your CC signon or as a guest user.
- In the top blue bar, hover over your name as it displays on the right-hand side. "My Library Account" will appear. Click on it to open.
- Click on "Loans."
- The items that are currently charged out to you will display. You may choose to "Renew All" or may select individual items to renew.
- The down arrow next to each item's renew button will expand the display so that you may see the maximum renewal date. This is the date the item will be due when it is renewed.
- If allowed, your item(s) will renew.

A renewal on interlibrary loan material is by arrangement directly through the Interlibrary Loan Department. Patrons may request a renewal of their interlibrary loan material in person or by calling the ILL Department at 860-512-2886.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE FOR OVERDUE MATERIALS

Overdue notices are sent to patrons as a courtesy to remind them that the library items charged to them are past due. Failure to receive an overdue notice does not absolve a library patron of his or her responsibility to return library materials by the date that they are due. It is common knowledge that libraries are "lending" libraries, and as such patrons have a limited and set time in which to borrow the library materials. MCC students, faculty and staff will receive overdue notices in their campus emails.

When a library item has gone two weeks past due (for 1-week items) or three weeks past due (for 3-week items) the items are considered lost, all borrowing privileges are suspended, and a Lost Item Bill is sent out detailing the costs to replace the lost item(s). All MCC and GPA students will immediately have a library hold placed on their student records in Banner indicating the dollar amount owed for the lost item(s). MCC and GPA faculty and staff will also have a library hold placed on their Banner accounts indicating the amount owed.

The Lost Item Bill is a bill to replace very overdue and/or lost items. Each item charged to the patron is displayed twice on the bill; once with the charge to replace the item, and once with a fixed $10.00 processing fee. Therefore, each item has two separate charges assessed to it. If the items on the bill are truly lost, a patron is responsible for all fees, and must pay them at the cashier's window on campus (Student Services Center, L-165), or online at myCommnet. No payments will be accepted in the library. If the patron has the lost items in his or her possession and they are in good condition the lost item fees will be forgiven upon return and the Banner hold will be removed. A 24-hour wait for the removal of a Banner hold is required during the fall and spring semesters.

PAYMENT & REIMBURSEMENT POLICY FOR LOST ITEMS

Patrons who pay for a lost item pay the amount that the MCC library paid for the item, including any shipping and handling fees associated with the acquisition and delivery of the item, plus a processing fee for each lost item.

- If the item is a book which is no longer in print the library will assess a replacement charge based on a book currently in print that is comparable to the content and physical type of book (i.e. hardcover or paperback).
- Patrons are assessed a $10.00 processing fee for each lost item in addition to the replacement cost. This processing fee is non-refundable.
- Patrons may select items from the library's Amazon Wish List to purchase as replacement copies for lost or damaged items they are being billed for. Patrons purchase items whose cost most closely matches their bill. More information on this option is available from the circulation staff.
- Patrons may replace a lost or damaged item with an identical copy that they have purchased. The purchased item must be an EXACT replacement for the lost or damaged item, including item format and publication year.
- If a patron finds a lost item within 30 days from the time that payment was made for its replacement, the replacement charge (minus the processing fee) will be reimbursed. The library reserves the right to determine whether an item qualifies for reimbursement based on its condition upon return (see Returning Library Materials, p. 13).

INTERLIBRARY LOAN (ILL)

Interlibrary Loan is a service through which materials in other libraries can be acquired. This service is available to all Connecticut residents who own an MCC library card. There is usually no charge for routine use of this service. Request may be filled out on our website. Patrons may also request items directly from our CSCU consortia via the Primo catalog. A reference librarian will be glad to assist you with this service.

If you prefer not to wait to receive material from another library, you may search one of our online databases to see if what you seek is at a nearby library and then travel to that library to borrow the item. Please see a reference librarian if you would like assistance with this option.

PERIODICALS

Periodicals is the library term for magazines, journals, and newspapers. The library subscribes to approximately 350 titles. You may consult the MCC Periodicals List to see what we own and whether it is in paper format or on one of our electronic databases. Please note that periodicals do not circulate outside of the library.

REFERENCE ASSISTANCE

Reference assistance is available during library hours at the reference desk and online. The reference librarian on duty is glad to assist patrons with their research. The reference staff can also introduce patrons to, and help them search, our various electronic databases, as well as the Internet. Appointments can be made at the reference desk for individual reference assistance.

PAY-FOR-PRINT SYSTEM

The library offers fee-based printing (color and b&w), scanning and copying. Account creation at a kiosk in the library or Academic Support Center is required to make use of these services. The costs are $0.08 per page for black & white printing and copying, $0.02 per page for scanning to a USB drive, and $0.25 per page for color printing. Library patrons can add money to their accounts at one of the kiosk locations. The kiosks currently accept cash only. Refunds will be given only in the event of printer/copier malfunction (e.g., jamming, low toner, etc.). There is a coin operated copier in the library. The cost for copies on this machine is $0.15 per page.

GROUP STUDY ROOMS

The library has five group study rooms available for use by individuals and groups. The BLUE and MAGENTA group study rooms are available for groups of 1 to 4 people, the GREEN and ORANGE group study rooms are available for groups of 2 to 6 people, and the large group study room (A121) is available for groups of 6 or more people.

All study rooms can be reserved ahead of time. Reservations can be made online up to two weeks in advance. Individuals or groups can book their times either online or by smart phone at http://libcal.manchestercc.edu. When not reserved, these rooms are available on a first come, first served basis.

Study room use is limited to a 2-hour maximum per day; individuals or groups may use the rooms more than once a day as long as the total time for the day does not exceed two hours.

- The group study rooms are intended for academic use.

- Food and open drinks are NOT permitted in the group study rooms.
- Individuals and groups MUST check in at the circulation desk to obtain a room pass before entering the rooms. Failure to check in may result in reservation cancellation after the 10 minute grace period. Single members of a group using the orange and green rooms may not obtain a pass for their group; at least two members of the group must show up within the 10 minute grace period or else the booking is forfeited and another group may book that time slot.
- Reserved group study rooms will be held for 10 minutes. If after 10 minutes an individual or group has failed to show up to use a reserved room, the reservation is forfeited and the room may be used by another group.
- Abuse of the group study room policy by making multiple bookings on the same day for the same core members of a group, and by using multiple and varied Banner numbers and/or email addresses, will result in all members of the group being banned from using the group study rooms for the remainder of the semester. By these actions group members are intentionally ignoring the spirit of these policies and are preventing fair and equal access to the group study rooms for all users. This includes multiple individuals who, in cooperation with each other, book consecutive 2-hour blocks of time for the purpose of extending their stay beyond the 2-hour daily limit.
- There will be a 1 warning policy. If library staff have to speak to a group/individual more than once for the violation of study room policies all members of the group or the individual shall be banned for the remainder of the semester.
- The large group study room (A-121) is kept locked and is only opened for booked groups. This room may be used for up to two hours at a time, unless booked for a college-sponsored activity, in which case it may be booked for a longer period of time.
- Library policies on food, drink, cell phones, electronic devices, dress, behavior and children apply to all group study rooms.

STUDY CARRELS & TABLES

There are a number of study carrels and study tables throughout the library as well as in Fireside Commons. All of the study tables have power outlets built into them, and patrons are encouraged to plug their laptops in and make use of MCC's wireless service. Plugging into data ports is prohibited. Some of the study tables can accommodate a small group of four to five people. Studying is encouraged; loud conversation is not. Groups who need to have discussions should go to the circulation desk to check the availability of a group study room.

FIRESIDE COMMONS

The Fireside Commons is designated as the library's quiet study room. Conversation is not allowed in this room. However, there are occasional times when functions are scheduled to take place in this room. Every attempt will be made to have signage posted indicating the time of the event and whether the public is welcome.

While quiet study is taking place, individuals engaging in conversation will be asked to stop or to leave the room.

LIBRARY GARDEN

The Library Garden is available during warmer months for patrons to enjoy. It may only be accessed through the library. Patrons must abide by all food and drink policies. Smoking is prohibited in the garden. The library asks that patron be courteous and bring in any library materials they have taken out to the garden area, and to dispose of all trash.

CLOSING POLICY

The library will close to the public at posted times. It is necessary for patrons to exit the library at these closing times.

While library staff may give verbal reminders shortly before closing, the absence of a reminder does not absolve patrons of the responsibility for exiting the library in a timely manner. In order to facilitate the smooth closing of the library, library staff request the following:

- Patrons using computers must save and/or print 15 minutes prior to closing to ensure that they get the material they need and that there is time to address any computer or printer problems that might arise.
- All items to be charged out must be brought to the circulation desk 15 minutes prior to closing.
- All photocopying should be completed 15 minutes prior to closing.

VIOLATION OF LIBRARY POLICIES

- Any individual identified by Manchester Community College Library staff as exhibiting unacceptable behavior will be asked to cease the offending behavior or to leave the library.
- If, after a request to cease their unacceptable behavior, a patron continues to behave in an unacceptable way, the patron may be asked to leave with no further requests to cease such behavior.
- If an individual refuses to comply with a request to cease unacceptable behavior or to leave the library, the campus police will be called to handle the situation.
