

NEWS AROUND TOWN

MCC Joining Collaborative Group

Manchester Community College is one of six Connecticut colleges and universities joining the Multistate Collaborative to Advance Learning Outcomes Assessment.

The school is one of 50 nationwide to take part in the collaborative group, the school said.

Faculty and other educational leaders from the schools will work together to try and improve student learning.

Beginning in the spring 2014 semester, Manchester Community College will name faculty members to certain assignments for the collaborative, the school said.

—Michael Walsh

