MANCHESTER —

Manchester Community College is to hold its 48th commencement on May 31 at 5 p.m.

Approximately 1,000 students will be awarded certificates and associate degrees in more than 60 programs, according to a news release.

Timothy J. Devanny, president of Highland Park Market, will receive an honorary degree in recognition of his continuing commitment to the college, the release said. Lewis J. Robinson, Jr., chairman of the board of regents for higher education, is to give the commencement address.

The ceremony, which is free and open to the public, is to be held on campus at the Bicentennial Band Shell. If it rains, the ceremony will be held in the SBM Charitable foundation auditorium at 5:30 p.m. The decision will be made by 11 a.m. that day, according to the news release.
