

Historian to lecture on World's Fair

By Journal Inquirer Staff

MANCHESTER — Manchester Historical Society board member Jason Scappaticci will give an illustrated lecture on the 1965-65 World's Fair on Sunday, May 20, at 1 p.m., at the History Center, 175 Pine St.

Scappaticci has a master's degree in American Studies from Trinity College and is the coordinator of Transitional Programs at Manchester Community College, where he has worked since 2003.

Scappaticci is active in local politics and has served on the Manchester Board of Education since 2011.

Parking is available along Pleasant Street, off Forest Street (no on-street parking) as well as in a small lot next to the History Center.

Admission is $3 for non-members, $1 for Society members, and free for children under age 16. Light refreshments will be served.

