Street is a collaboration of representatives of the town of Manchester, Manchester Community College, the Downtown Spe business owners, non-profit organizations, artists and concerned citizens.

“Our goal is to enhance our already vibrant downtown with an increased focus on the Arts,” said Imagine Main Street’s Ch envision downtown Manchester becoming a destination for the Arts and Arts related businesses.”

Program highlights for June 7 include art displays in downtown business storefronts by over 20 local artists, local musician staging of several currently vacant storefronts on Main Street, the staging of new apartments at 867 Main St., and a brew t events throughout the evening at venues along Main Street. Event attendees are encouraged to stop for a bite at local rest businesses open that evening.

“We’re particularly excited about the staging of the few vacant sites,” said Gates. “The goal is to stimulate our imaginations these strategically located sites.”

The Arts focus will also be enhanced with the opening of Manchester Community College’s new Arts and Education C summer.
