

Email me updates

Barefoot BooksCredit Steve Kanaras

The weekly farmers' market held at Manchester Community College provides the opportunity for the community to purchase products, and other goods from local vendors.

In addition to local farmers and vendors, the market includes entertainment and events for children and adults.

This week featured the music and storytelling of Gale Gardiner, a recording artist, composer, and educator from Farmington (page).

In addition, children were offered pony rides aboard Starbuck, a pony from Fiddlehead Farms. The pony ride will return for The Lutz Children's Museum will be providing a bestiary of snakes, lizards, and turtles for the market next week.

For more information about vendors and coming events, please contact Patrick Sullivan of the English Department at psul (860) 546-1191 or on the website.

4

0

EmailPrintFollow commentsSubmit tipComment