

Budding chefs

Anna Roberts of Tolland, foreground, serves a vegetable dish as Alison Dorrrough of Glastonbury and Olivia Fiori of South Windsor work a buffet line during a capstone meal last week for the Junior Culinary Institute at Manchester Community College. At right, Alissa and Olivia Fiori of South Windsor, Derick Borruso of Coventry, and Alessio Pressamarita of East Hartford dig into the pasta after serving their families. Sixteen children in grades 5-8 participated in the weeklong summer camps this month. Friday's menu included chicken meatballs, vegan pot stickers, mini quiche, handmade fettuccini, gelato, and other dishes made from scratch.
