

Ducharme honored

George G. Ducharme has been selected to receive the Sister Fay O'Brien Award from St. Joseph College, where he earned a master's degree in special education in 1969. The award is given to outstanding graduates of the School of Education. He is the director, as a volunteer, of the Institute on Disability and Community Inclusion at Manchester Community College. When he joined the faculty at MCC in 1991 he re-established the Disabilities Specialist associates degree program. He is also an adjunct professor of Disability Issues and Native American Studies at MCC. He is also a cofounder of Communitas in Manchester.

