

Calling all creative CT Certified Teachers!

Do you have an activity or unit you have always wanted to teach?

Now is your chance! – Become an “Excursions in Learning” teacher!

We are looking for exciting, creative, engaging classes for students grades K-8!

DATES:

- Spring Semester: 3 hours of curriculum – one 3-hour class/workshop on Saturdays in February 2012 (4th, 11th, 18th, or 25th).
- Summer Semester: 30 hours of curriculum – ten 3-hour classes (9am-12pm or 1pm-4pm) Monday-Friday for 2 weeks August 6-17th 2012.

PAYMENT: $25.00 per hour, starting

STUDENT AGE: Grade range categories for classes are k-2nd, 3-5th, and 6-8th

TO APPLY: Send a New Course Proposal Form, cover letter and resume to Carleigh Cappetta, Youth Coordinator at ccappetta@mcc.commnet.edu

(New Course Proposal Forms can be found on our website:
<http://www.mcc.commnet.edu/continuing/excursions.php>)

DEADLINES:

For spring semester: submit by October 17th 2011

For fall semester: submit by December 7th 2011

WHAT IS EXCURSIONS IN LEARNING? Excursions in Learning is an academic enrichment program for students completing kindergarten through eighth grade. Classes are held in Manchester Community College's state-of-the-art classrooms and facilities. Programs offered in August are exclusively for talented and gifted (TAG) students. For more information visit our website (above).

SPECIFIC SUBJECTS WE'RE INTERESTED IN:

Language arts: (reading, creative writing); Math: (fractions, equations, geometry, algebra, architecture); science: (biology, veterinary science, forensics, medicine, physics, chemistry); art (sculpture, painting, drawing cartooning [especially anime], ceramics,; performing arts (music; theatre, dance); computer science; technology; physical fitness/athletics, building; Lego Robotics, and more!