FALL 2007

Kim Bridgford
October 22-November 9, 2007

Kim Bridgford has published three books of poetry: Undone, nominated for the Pulitzer Prize; Instead of Maps, nominated for the Poets’ Prize; and In the Extreme: Sonnets about World Records, winner of the Donald Justice Poetry Award. Though best known as a poet—her work having been published extensively in the U.S., Canada, and the UK—she is also a fiction writer and critic. She serves as editor of Dogwood and the online women’s formalist magazine Mezzo Cammin. Bridgford has received grants from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Connecticut Commission on the Arts and was selected Connecticut Professor of the Year by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. Kim Bridgford is a Professor of English at Fairfield University.

SPRING 2008

Connecticut Student Poets
January 28-March 14, 2008

The Connecticut Student Poets are selected by the Circuit Selection Committee. Each college is invited to nominate one student poet. Five pages of poetry by the poet must reach the Circuit Directors by October 19, 2007. The finalists will be announced in December.

For more information, please see your campus representative.
In 1964 the New England Poetry Circuit was formed at the request of The Academy of American Poets in order to provide colleges with readings by fine poets. In 1968 it split in two, and the Connecticut Poetry Circuit came into being. These professional poets have toured the Circuit:
