

CONNECTICUT POETRY CIRCUIT

2011 2012

FALL 2011

Benjamin Grossberg

October 17-October 28, 2011

Benjamin Grossberg is the author of two full-length poetry collections. His first, Underwater Lengths in a Single Breath, won the Ashland Poetry Press's Snyder Prize. His second, Sweet Core Orchard, won the 2008 Tampa Review Prize and a Lambda Literary Award; it has been described by Edward Hirsch as "a brave, unabashed . . . and utterly exuberant collection of poems" with "a sweet wild energy at its core." Grossberg's poems have appeared widely in journals, including New England Review, North American Review, Paris Review, Southwest Review, and Missouri Review and have been reprinted in both the Pushcart Prize and Best American Poetry anthologies. He also serves as an editor and regular book reviewer for the Antioch Review. Grossberg has a Ph.D. in Creative Writing and Literature from the University of Houston. He is an associate professor of English at the University of Hartford.
